How to get to Bucharest:

Arriving by PLANE: International flights land at Henri Coanda International Airport, located in Otopeni, 17 km north of the city center. Henri Coanda (Otopeni) Airport is serviced by train, buses and taxis and also Uber/ Bolt apps.

BUS: Express Bus 100 offers daily service to the city center with main stops at Baneasa Airport, Piata Presei Libere, Piata Victoriei, Piata Romana, Piata Universitatii/Piata 21 Decembrie and Piata Unirii.

The bus leaves from the international Departures terminal every 15 minutes. This line runs day and night.

At night, the bus leaves every 30 minutes. The journey usually takes about 45-50 minutes. If it is a rush hour the journey could easily take more, even 1.15h. The approximate duration of one trip can be checked with the help of Google Maps.

The cost for one bus trip is 3 lei (0.6 euro). When you travel from Henri Coanda International Airport to the city center you can buy the ticket from the automatic vending machine located exactly in the bus stop. The bus stop is downstairs, in front of Domestic Arrivals.

Note: Some of the bus stops along the route may not have ticket booths so better buy this card in advance. Remember to validate your ticket on board the bus.

Train from Otopeni to Gara de Nord. Otopeni Airport is linked by train to the centre of Bucharest, at North railway station (Gara de Nord). Trains leave from the airport approximately every 40 minutes, and the trip lasts 25 minutes. However, the exact schedule needs to be checked in the station. Tickets costs 5 lei (approx. 1 euro) and are available at the ticket office in the Arrivals area. Gara de Nord station is linked by subway to other areas within Bucharest (see subway map below).

TAXI: Licensed taxis without prior request, with fares between 1.89 lei/km and 3.5 lei/km, will be available for passengers arriving at Bucharest Henri Coandă International Airport. These cars will be situated in a taxi station located at the exit of the terminal and will take passengers in order of arrival.

The touch screen terminals for taxi requests are also available for customers who want on-demand taxis services, are available at Bucharest Henri Coanda International Airport. You may order a taxi car by using the touch screen devices in the public area of the Arrivals Terminal. The passengers get on the taxi-cabs right outside the terminal, on the first floor, by showing the ticket issued by the automatic touch screen. The charges vary between 2,5 lei/km – 3, 50 lei/km.
